Rock Island ipcidentally is to have this master super-special ahead of Davenport or any cities in the vicinity and it is to Manager Quinn's great credit that he is bringing this great play here. It is certain that five days will not be any too long for this picture for any too long for this picture for after people have seen it, many will want to view it again.

The picture was produced under the personal direction of George Rock Island and French War. Rock Island at the Ed Sibyl home.

On being asked today what he thought of the Chamber of Commerce, as being organized, Attorney J. F. Witter stated: "If you desire to see Rock Island advance and prosper, you should belong to an organization such as the Chamber of Commerce. One thousand individuals wishing for the advancement of Rock Island can accomplish little or nothing; but one thousand citizens banded together and working for the advancement of the city represent a force it would be hard to measure. The Chamber of Commerce is the one institution in Rock Island which molds individuals and their wishes into its action.
